West Suburban Women Entrepreneurs presents, "Money 101: Advice and Lessons"

Nov. 8, 2010, (LaGrange, IL) -- West Suburban Women Entrepreneurs, www.wswe.org, a premier educational and networking organization in the western suburbs for women seeking to better their businesses, their communities and the world. Attendee registration

Catherine Riddick, Owner of XPonent Group LTD will be moderating a panel of financial experts on MONEY 101: ADVICE AND LESSONS on Thursday, November 18, 2010 at the Ashton Place, 341 75th Street, Willowbrook, Illinois at 8:00 am (CST).

Our expert panelists are Fran Skala, Skala and Associates, P.C.; Karen Encher Skala, Karen Skala Wealth Management; Barbara Vondra, CPA; and Sheila Welsch, of Merrill Lynch. These financial experts will be discussing how we can establish an empowering approach to managing our business profitability and a healthy relationship with money.

This powerful seminar can help you identify barriers to financial success by introducing you to practical ideas for making sense of business financial matters to help you achieve financial freedom.

In addition to educational sessions, WSWE attendees are able to develop relationships that become a critical source of support and inspiration, meet women who understand your challenges and can provide encouragement and share practical solutions, learn from experts with the information you need to continue to grow both professionally and personally and make professional connections that will lead to new business opportunities.
